

INTERNET ACCESS POLICY

- Internet access will be provided free to the public. The use of the Library's computers is a privilege and not a right.
- Library computers are primarily for research, business and study purposes. Library patrons use the internet at their own discretion.
- Users may use ONLY the software installed on the computer and must not attempt to install additional software.
- A fee of .25 per copy will be charged for printing.
- The staff are not responsible for training the public but are available for assistance.
- If necessary, time limits will be decided upon by the Library Manager who will take importance of subject matter into consideration.
- Everyone under the age of 16 must have parental permission with a signed copy of the consent on file in the library.
- Unacceptable usage will result in loss of Internet privileges. Any library staff person has the authority to suspend usage.

The following is not permitted:

1. Sending or displaying offensive messages or pictures.
 2. Using obscene language.
 3. Harassing, insulting or attacking others.
 4. Damaging computers, computer systems or computer networks.
 5. Using others' passwords.
 6. Violating copyright laws.
 7. Employing the network for commercial purposes.
-
- Saving of information is permitted only on to patrons own storage devices.
 - The library will not be held responsible for content of web sites accessed by the public.

Original: 2005

Amended: June 2014

Reviewed: May 2018