Category: Materials

Policy Number: 606

Title: Library Services for Special Needs

Policy Statement: The library shall provide access to library materials and information services for those patrons with special needs.

Guidelines and Procedures:

1. The library will endeavour to provide an outreach service, upon request, by any patron in the community who, by reason of health, age, or unusual circumstance, is unable to visit the library and use its regular services.
2. Whenever possible, the library will attempt to provide, through its own collection, and/or regional resources and subject to availability, reasonable access to high interest, suitable, vocabulary materials, for all age levels.
