

Find your library with golibrary

The Northern Lights Library System is proud to launch a new service for First Nations and Métis peoples living on reserves and settlements.

Our new website, golibrary, makes it easier than ever to find your closest library.

- 1. Select your reserve/settlement
- 2. Discover the libraries closest to you
- 3. Choose your library and register online
- 4. Instantly receive your library barcode
- 5. Start accessing electronic resources right away!

After registering, you'll have thirty days to visit your library in person to complete the sign-up.

With a library membership, you can explore a wealth of digital and physical resources, allowing you to learn, explore, and play online and at your local library.
